The Tandoor !!

The Tandoor is a traditional oval-shaped clay oven, Fired by natural charcoal, which allows for even heat distribution. The secret to its cooking lies in the enclosed grilling method, which helps retain tenderness, moisture, and flavor qualities often lost in open-fire barbecue-style cooking.

Tandoori cuisine originates from the Northern regions of India, where the use of the tandoor is deeply embedded in culinary tradition.

The experience, as you'll discover, is authentically Indian rustic, aromatic, and rich in cultural heritage.

Khana Khazana celebrates the culinary legacy India is renowned for especially the exquisite flavors of Tandoori cuisine.

The Khana Khazana Curry Preparations

Rich Gravies & Creamy Textures: Mughal cuisine introduced the use of cream, yogurt, and Cashew nuts to create luxurious sauces, Dishes like korma, shahi Curries, and butter chicken owe their richness to this legacy.*

Aromatic Spices: The Mughals favored fragrant spices like saffron, cardamom, cinnamon, and cloves, Bay leaves, Peppers and some other condiments - not just for flavor but for their royal aroma.*

Our chefs prepare the finest delicacies using original herbs and spices, bringing you the true taste of Northern India.
